thoughts & insights from Ordinarily Amazing®

"Make your failure openly publicly with genuine regret but absolutely no shame and you'll reap a harvest of forgiveness, trust, respect and connection. The things you thought you would get by succeeding. "

Dare to Fail - a twist on an Ordinarily Amazing life

Within failure is where the greatest insights come. You have heard the stories of small businesses about to close their doors because of failed business models, yet out of the failure a new thought comes and a brilliant business is formed. Failure is a part of our lives. It is a shared experience that we can all understand. We make mistakes as individuals, as parents, as kids and as employees. Keep moving forward.

Count your failures as badges of honor. Gift yourself the experience. Acknowledge it and learn from it. Shared with others, it becomes a gift of authenticity. It tells others failure is simply part of the path to success. Dare to fail and you may find yourself in the middle of your most phenomenal success.
